*reasons why writing with the hand makes you smarter.
And probably even happier.*

*Writing by hand is thinking on paper. Thoughts grow into words, sentences and pictures. Memories become stories. Ideas are transformed into projects. Notes inspire insight. We write and understand, learn, see and think – with the hand.

The hand

"The hand is the window to the mind" said the German philosopher Immanuel Kant almost three hundred years ago. We see the world with our eyes but we really "grasp" it with our hands. Our sense of touch is so sophisticated that we are able to describe in much greater detail things we have grasped with our hands in the dark than things we have only seen with our eyes. Every contact, each touch sets off a chain reaction of connections in the brain – and accelerates our thinking.

To grip is to grasp

Write with pen and paper –
and ignite your inner potential.

Think

It takes time for us to learn how to read. And it takes years until our handwriting joins the individual letters in a smoothly flowing movement, which in turn inspires our thoughts to flow freely. It is precisely this complex interplay of fine motor skills, abstraction and imagination that makes writing by hand a veritable symphony of the synapses. Writing by hand strengthens the connection between the right and left hemispheres of the brain. From the point of view of the human brain, very few things are as integral and sophisticated as writing with pen and paper.

*Writing trains
the mind*

Write down your thoughts – and stimulate all areas of your brain.

Understand

Typing is not writing. No keyboard can replace the valuable thinking and processing mechanisms that occur when we put pen to paper. Students have deeper learning experiences when they make handwritten notes. Preschoolers develop language skills more easily with frequent use of pen and paper. And even words in a foreign language are committed to memory better the moment we write them down – regardless of which language it is and how old we are. Knowledge is a resource that multiplies when used. As soon as we write something down by hand, we increase our knowledge.

Write to learn

Study with pen and paper –
and enhance your personal learning curve.

4 Act

*Writing is thinking
on paper*

The mind can only think a limited number of steps in advance. That's why our heads sometimes buzz and most people can't plan more than five consecutive chess moves. But as soon as we pick up a pen and put it to paper, we allow our thoughts to run free. We escape the inner confusion, simply by putting our thoughts in order. This empowers us to step back. And the resulting distance helps us to objectively view plans and projects. By writing our thoughts down, we bring them to life. By putting our plans on paper, we increase the chances of actually putting them into practice.

Write down what's going through your mind –
the reward is clarity and insight.

5 Classify

Lists are liberating

No draft is set in stone. Schedules are hardly ever kept. There are never enough hours in a day. Most of our worries revolve around constantly changing tasks and projects – and pen and paper can achieve clarity and calm here, as well. Each handwritten list frees the mind, facilitates analysis and sharpens focus. Lists help us to separate the important from the urgent. We use them to restructure projects, classify and prioritise. And we sometimes forge relationships on paper that we previously weren't aware of. Even this process is certainly quicker, more intuitive and efficient with the use of pen and paper. Not to mention the satisfaction that comes from crossing a completed task off your list!

Plan your projects with lists – and you'll hold control over them in your hand.

6 Discover

Writers are wanderers

Many authors still write their novels by hand because they want to discover where the journey will take them. Putting words down on paper is like embarking on a journey – we know where it starts – but not where it will end. Unlike texts on a monitor, sentences written on paper have a lasting quality. The pen reinforces this effect, gently driving the hand over the page, from one word to the next. Instead of simply deleting a sentence with the back key or tearing the sheet of paper out of the typewriter, we move forward in the direction of our thoughts, which (loosely based on Kleist) we compose while writing. If you have a complex problem but no solution in sight, just pick up your pen and paper and start – writing is striding forth in spirit; one sentence follows another, one idea after the next. Suddenly, characters and ideas emerge, formed by the previous thought – apparently conceived out of the blue, but ultimately created by hand.

Write down your thoughts by hand –
and explore the world.

Let go

Writing is release. It allows us to understand, process, think, unwind and free ourselves from many things that dampen the spirit. Once we write something down, we feel relieved. Writing by hand stimulates areas in the brain that are also active when we meditate. We calm down, think more clearly, review our thoughts – ultimately letting some of them go. Scientists also confirm these findings – writing by hand not only helps to understand, it also helps to process ideas, let go of them or cast them aside. It doesn't have to be a diary. Even the smallest to-do list lifts the weight and creates great lightness.

Write down what you want to give up – and discover inner peace.

*Writing down
frees the mind*

Remember

Writing by hand is a physical act. Every single letter, word, underscored passage, circle or mark that you put on paper leaves traces that remain in our physical memory. Most people can remember an exciting part in a book even months after reading it. Handwriting has a similar, yet stronger effect. In the transcript of a lecture that is teeming with references, we recall the ideas we had when we were sitting in the lecture hall. The recollection of the situation in which we wrote each handwritten text can still rise before our inner eye even years later. The briefest handwritten note takes us on a journey through time. This is the reason why so many people keep their notebooks. And why famous people's manuscripts are so popular – because handwriting says so much about a person's character.

Write with pen and paper –
and track your personal history.

*Writing by hand
is the way to stay*

Dear Partners,

“Panta Rhei – everything is in flux” was the conclusion reached by Greek philosopher Heraclitus in around 500 BC.

“Everything is in motion, nothing stands still!” sums up his philosophy and this is exactly the essence of our new campaign:

“Re:combine your thoughts” invites you to capture your impressions on paper so that you can view them from a new perspective. The fact is, not everything was better or worse in the past, the world just keeps on changing. Day by day, month by month, year by year! And we are convinced that the power of the written word provides us with lasting inspiration to sharpen our perspectives, actualise our plans and continue to grow.

When it comes to our own philosophy regarding each of our notebooks and Drehgriffel, we aim to provide our customers with the right tools to create a place where personal thoughts and ideas can flourish. We want to keep learning, stay inspired and encourage people to think with the hand.

We sincerely extend our heartfelt thanks for your partnership and look forward to exploring, discovering and growing with you in the future.

Best regards,

Kurt Stürken

re:combine your thoughts.

The new colours:
Apricot, Lobster,
Sky and Ink.

As soon as we put pen to paper, we set our thoughts into motion. A space opens up in which memories, experiences and insights are reassembled.

This is how plans, ideas, paths and images emerge, which we perceive differently upon writing. We combine, reflect, think and develop further – re:combine your thoughts.

Drehgriffel Nr. 2 Bauhaus Edition

Minimalist design combined with maximum functionality – at Leuchtturm1917 we continue to follow the pioneering principles of the Bauhaus school.

The successful Bauhaus Edition, with its notebooks, Pen Loops and the Drehgriffel Nr. 1, is now complemented by the award-winning Drehgriffel Nr. 2: a mechanical pencil.

With its function and design, the Drehgriffel Nr. 2 takes us back to the origins of the Bauhaus school of the 1920s – to designing with pen and paper. The discreet dot on the twist button also reminds us of this and echoes Wassily Kandinsky's motivating quote "Everything starts from a dot". The design principles of Bauhaus are also reflected in the colour contrast between the pen body, tip and turning head, which is reminiscent of Piet Mondrian's pictorial compositions.

The German-made mechanism is screwed into the tip for a precise fit. Its barrel holds up to eight HB refills with a line width of 0.7 mm. The refill can be pushed in using a twist mechanism. The Drehgriffel Nr. 2 is made of brass, aluminium and steel, lacquered and tempered. Its weight is optimally balanced, making it a pleasure to use.

Cover

Softcover or Hardcover?

A clear question of personal preference.

We at Leuchtturm1917 understand this and that is why we offer increasingly more of our notebooks in both versions. Depending on the area of application and individual taste, the cover is a decisive factor.

The Softcover offers the advantage of maximum flexibility at less weight and is usually the ideal choice for anyone who likes to be on the go and ready to write at any moment.

The robust Hardcover not only offers sturdy protection, but also serves as a stable writing surface – for example at larger meetings, events or when travelling – it's there when there's no table to offer support.

Rulings

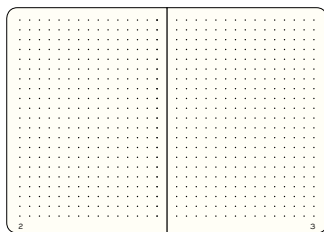

To rule or not to rule – that is the question. While under certain circumstances you might make compromises with the cover colour, opinions differ when it comes to how a page is ruled.

From plain for absolute freedom to dotted for minimal support to ruled and squared for greater structural stability – whatever your needs, our page designs rule.

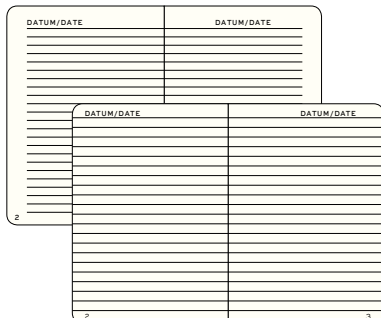

Plain

Clear, white pages. No margin, no date. Simply features the page number in the bottom corner. We also provide each plain notebook with a ruled and squared guideline page.

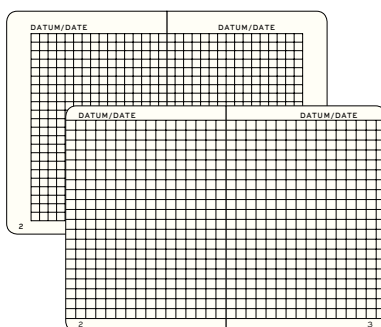

Dotted

Dots with 5 mm spacing provide a guide for writing, creating tables and drawings.

Ruled

Almost all sizes feature the standard 6 mm line spacing. Only our Master Classic notebook provides generous 8.5 mm line spacing on 235 pages. The notebooks in Master size have a side margin with space for comments.

Squared

Available in all sizes and versions – squared with precise 5 × 5 mm boxes. For calculations, tables and drawings. Our Master notebooks also feature a margin.

Master

Sometimes more is more. The Master notebook was the first notebook that we produced and we are still very fond of it. With its oversized A4+ format (225 × 315 mm), and compared with all smaller formats, it is a master of its class when it comes to order and clarity.

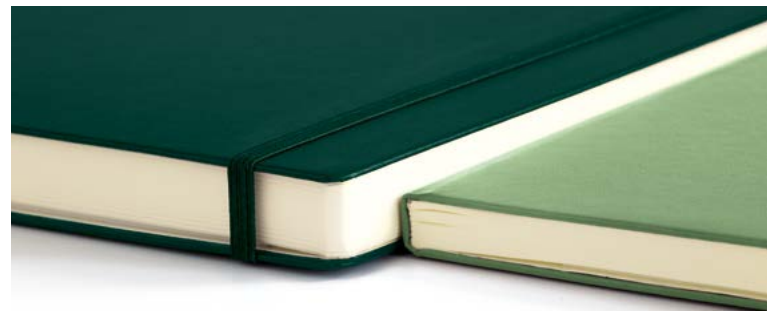

The highlight – loose sheets and handouts in A4 format are easily and invisibly stowed away between the pages or in the pocket on the inside of the back cover, just as in a file folder. We offer the Master format with two different thicknesses:

As “Classic” edition with 235 numbered pages and as “Slim”, a slender version with only 123 numbered pages.

reddot winner

The paper quality of both versions is identical at 100 g/m² and thus significantly heavier than for all other notebooks. Due to the smaller page count, the Master Slim is significantly lighter and leaner than the Master Classic. Ruled with either lines or grids, our Master notebooks have a page margin for comments and cross-referencing. The line height for lined Master Classic is 8.5 mm and 6 mm for Master Slim.

Composition

These notebooks offer significantly more space on each page than a Medium (A5) and are also smaller and more space-saving than a Master (A4+).

The Composition format is the same size as B5, a working size that is suitable for pretty much any project.

This notebook format is available with a robust Hardcover and 219 numbered pages, as well as a flexible Softcover, which is significantly lighter, with only 123 numbered pages.

Both versions are equipped with the familiar Leuchtturm1917 details such as an expandable pocket, page numbers and a table of contents.

Medium

There are many reasons why the Medium (A5) notebook format is the most frequently purchased and used format. It is the gold standard among notebook formats.

Its size perfectly combines convenience and creative space for notes, plans and sketches. This is exactly what our customers appreciate and they can also choose between two versions:

The Hardcover with its substantial 251 numbered pages and the slightly lighter Softcover with 123 numbered pages.

Both versions feature the popular Leuchtturm1917 notebook details, such as a table of contents, perforated pages at the back of the notebook and a pocket for storing loose papers.

BULLET⚡JOURNAL®

Bullet Journal® Drehgriffel Nr. 1

Bullet Journaling is a worldwide phenomenon with a continuously growing community of followers. Together with Ryder Carroll, the inventor of the Bullet Journal® method, we have developed the matching writing instrument – the Bullet Journal® Drehgriffel Nr. 1.

The long, distinctive tip and the twist head are made of brass and give this writing instrument its special character. The black barrel is made of lacquered aluminium that has been sandblasted. This provides a slightly grainy, matt surface with a pleasant grip. The glossy black logo on the mid-section stands out discreetly against the matt background. The lightning bolt engraved in the twist head is the distinctive mark of the international Bullet Journal® community.

The Bullet Journal® Drehgriffel Nr. 1 has a Japanese gel refill with 0.5 mm line thickness and black ink. It provides a fine ink line that is particularly suitable for Bullet Journaling.

120g Edition

Whether you prefer to write with a marker, fountain pen or brush pen – the 120 g/m² paper is the perfect writing surface for a variety of writing instruments.

During the milling process, the paper receives a smooth and particularly low-friction finish. It allows your pen to glide across the page with a minimum of wear and provides a pleasantly flowing writing sensation.

The ink does not bleed into the paper, but retains its clear contour. By adding the proper fillers, the paper has comparatively low transparency: writing does not shine through to the other side. The paper was specially developed and manufactured in Germany.

Outlines

The weatherproof notebook

Whatever the weather, with Outlines you'll always be able to read what you've written.

The Outlines notebook features the same non-coated, durable, wet-strength paper developed in Germany to produce nautical charts.

It guarantees writing pleasure whether you use a fountain pen, ballpoint or pencil. In addition to the heavy 150 g/m² quality, this is due to the paper's particularly smooth surface finish. That means smooth sailing when you put your pen to the excellent pages, even when wet. In this case, we recommend the use of a pencil.

The water-repellent cover with a linen structure also protects all personal entries.

Bauhaus Edition

Wassily Kandinsky, painter and lecturer at the Bauhaus school, summed it up neatly when he said: “Everything starts from a dot.” This quote highlights the fact that for creative minds, the process of committing ideas to paper via the hand begins with a dot on the page. The first point of contact between thoughts and paper – a crucial moment.

Clean, minimalist forms, functional details and classic colours are key features of the modern era’s most influential design school – and also the principles that have always guided the design of Leuchtturm1917 products.

As a tribute to the revolutionary Bauhaus style, we have created a special edition that encompasses a notebook, Pen Loop and Drehgriffel Nr. 1 and whose form, colour and details honour the pioneering Bauhaus ethos.

We will soon be completing the Bauhaus Edition with the Drehgriffel Nr. 2 (see page 20).

Furthermore, we will be happy to provide you with a corresponding product flyer, which is the ideal way to present the Bauhaus Edition to your customers (see page 159).

A close-up, warm-toned photograph of a woman with dark hair, seen from the side, writing in a small notebook. She is holding a dark pen with gold accents. On the table in front of her is a white cup, a glass of water, and a salt shaker. The background is softly blurred, showing what appears to be a restaurant or cafe setting with other patrons and bright light from a window.

“And in the end, it’s not the years in your life that count.
It’s the life in your years.”

Abraham Lincoln

griffel

[dre:][griffel] The name combines the word Dreh (twist), a reference to the twist mechanism, and the term Griffel (pen), a name for the oldest writing instrument in the world (from the Greek grapheíon = writing instrument). The font is derived from the Sütterlin script. The original script was developed by the Berlin graphic artist and educator Ludwig Sütterlin for learning cursive writing, which became the widespread standard in Germany during the 1920s.

The Drehgriffel makes a striking statement with its hexagonal silhouette. Both the narrowly tapered tip and the twist mechanism come in a colour that contrasts with the body. The Drehgriffel is precision-milled in aluminium and brass, then varnished and sealed. It uses a spring-loaded twist mechanism that carries a replaceable refill.

Pen Loops

A fitting place for the pen. The Pen Loop is the answer! The practical Pen Loop complements our colourful notebooks thanks to the wide variety of Leuchtturm1917 colours and enables the owner to set their own accents with their preferred colour scheme.

We have created our own USP in the market with the Pen Loop which was developed in-house and features a patented design. The Pen Loop comes with a self-adhesive surface, which enables it to be attached anywhere to the inside cover of the notebook – the elasticated, strong fabric loop keeps both a thin pencil, our Drehgriffel as well as a thicker fountain pen securely in place.

A pencil for your thoughts: Leuchtturm1917 fine pencils have fully-bonded HB leads for smooth writing and sturdy tips.

As an accent or tone-on-tone to the notebook or Pen Loop in terms of colour, pencils provide countless ways to personalise the process of thinking and writing. They come as a pack of 10 pieces in one colour – you can choose what colours best suit your range. For an attractive presentation, please use our glass displays.

Basics

Besides offering excellent product quality, high performance details and a clear design language, Leuchtturm1917 stands, first and foremost, for a huge range of colours.

You can achieve the best possible effect at the POS with these colour concepts by simply adhering to a few basics that we have put together for you.

The Leuchtturm1917 colour concept

Light Grey, Mint Green, Forest Green and Fox Red are added to the classic rainbow.

Setting impulses with colours:

The New Colours 2024 are not incorporated into the rainbow, but are presented as a secondary or special placement in their very own harmonious colour scheme.

Colour concept

Our experience has shown that a significantly better sales result can be achieved by adhering to two principles:

Principle 1

Colours should always be presented in blocks – this achieves maximum impact.

Principle 2

Notebooks should always be presented in blocks of the right colour family.

The natural gradation of the colour spectrum should be used as a guide.

It may be helpful to divide the range of colours into colour groups and present these accordingly.

Shopfitting systems

Illuminated shelving

Ideally positioned to illuminate Leuchtturm1917 notebooks, their colours and features. A light is located underneath the shelving to let the notebook colours shine in all their glory.

New products and highlights – such as the New Colours 2024 shown below – should always be presented on the upper level.

New additional meter for Drehgriffel and journals

Our new multifunctional additional module for a wide range of product presentations is now available. Matching the existing shelves, it not only extends product presentation options by one metre, but also offers an attractive solution for our Drehgriffel presentation frames and hanging Drehgriffel displays.

It also features an additional customised shelf in the lower half for the exclusive presentation of the diverse Leuchtturm1917 journals.

Gift boxes

Beautiful custom packaging adds to the value of a product and increases the pleasure of gift-giving.

That's why we now also offer two exclusive gift boxes for Leuchtturm1917 products.

Gift box for a Drehgriffel

The gift box for the Drehgriffel features the iconic triangular design, which is already familiar from the Drehgriffel packaging.

The box consists of a base element and a slipcase. If the Drehgriffel has been engraved, the personalisation on the gift is directly visible as it has to be inserted without its packaging.

Gift box for a notebook and option of including a Drehgriffel

The gift box is ideal for a notebook in Medium (A5) format with the option of including a Drehgriffel. Thanks to a special module that can be inserted next to the notebook, you can either see the outline of a writing instrument or make use of the option of placing the Drehgriffel packaging in a recess.

Both gift boxes are laminated with high-quality black cardboard, which further emphasises the elegant look.

Personalisation

Emboss a name on a notebook or engrave a name on a Drehgriffel.

You can offer your customers this personalised added value with a minimum of effort – because as your partner, we're right at your side. The customer selects the desired Leuchtturm1917 product in the shop, decides on the embossing or engraving and pays you. You send us the order and we send the finished product to your shop or – on request – to your customer's address.

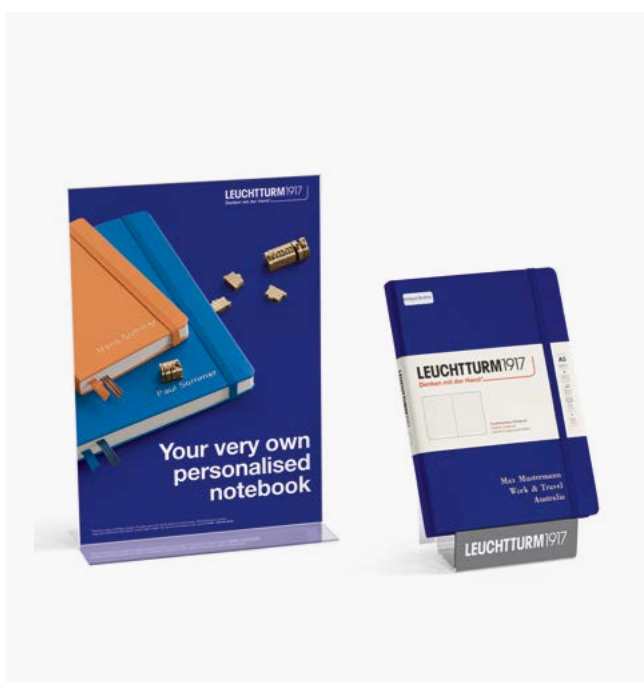

Embossing on notebooks

Embossing is personalisation that you can feel. That differentiates it from printing and makes it so special. We offer two font styles and up to 19 different embossing colours for the hot-foil embossing process. Up to three lines can be embossed, one below the other.

Engraving on the Drehgriffel

The name is engraved with a precision machine on the side opposite to the one with the Drehgriffel logo. The engraving is done discreetly in Helvetica font style. For Drehgriffel Nr. 1, the engraving matches the logo: white or graphite. For Drehgriffel Nr. 2, the engraving is in silver (without colour).

Your customer service

We provide you with a complementary sample set to present Embossing-as-a-Service in your shop.

The sample set includes:

- 3 sample notebooks with name embossing (Master, Medium, Pocket)
- an acrylic display A4 with an advertising poster
- an information sheet
- order forms
- a checklist for the order forms

Name embossing

Offer your customers an extra special service:

Notebooks with individual name embossing – a personal touch that adds value.

Your customer selects the cover colour, format and ruling of the desired Leuchtturm1917 notebook and determines what they want to have embossed. We provide pre-printed forms to help your customer decide between two font styles and 19 embossing colours. The customer pays you for the book and the service. You send us the order and we send the embossed product back to your shop or – on request – directly to your customer's address.

Notebooks and Drehgriffel are brand ambassadors.

Combine the individuality of your brand with the individuality of a notebook or a Drehgriffel and refine them with a logo embossing or logo engraving. Whether blind or coloured – turn your brand into a constant companion for your customers or employees.

Wrap band and premium packaging

Use the wrap bands for your own communication and give the notebook the perfect outfit to make a good first impression. It's not just the content that counts, the packaging is also important. Our gift boxes can also be customised with an embossing or a print.

Highlights

A natural relationship

Writing down your thoughts in a notebook is, in itself, a truly long-term affair – especially if the notebook is made by our company.

Family businesses are sustainable.

We have been producing fine stationery for more than one hundred years. As a North German family-owned enterprise, we proceed with Hanseatic calm, determination and foresight. While we continuously improve the quality of our products and processes, we remain dedicated to taking responsibility for our employees, our social environment and increasingly for our partners, whose production processes we help to adapt to the highest international standards.

Our paper is sustainable.

The owners of our notebooks, sketchbooks and planners make their entries with fountain pens, ballpoint pens, crayons and pencils of different thicknesses and origins. To suit each individual application, we strive for the perfect paper in the appropriate quality, smoothness and grammage. Paper that is 100% recycled would not meet this requirement. We therefore use paper that also contains long fibres obtained from fresh pulp. Of course, all of our papers are FSC-certified. Because at Leuchtturm1917, we have been dealing with this issue for a long time; we even keep track of the development of paper produced in the paper mills that supply us.

Our processing methods are sustainable.

We print the pages and covers of our notebooks, planners and sketchbooks with mineral oil-free, water-based inks and varnishes. Our products also meet the stringent requirements of the EU REACH chemicals regulation, which is based on the rigorous Californian “Proposition 65”, a type of continuously updated list to protect drinking water, the environment and people from substances that are hazardous to health. Here too, we do not wait until the laws become stricter, but see ourselves as part of the solution – with sustainable innovations that we develop together with our partners.

Notebooks, planners and sketchbooks are sustainable at heart.

Anyone who writes down their thoughts and ideas with pen and paper is holding on to them and thus deliberately creating a potential personal archive. Our books are not consumer goods; they are consumer durables that become valuable objects when used. Month after month, they are indispensable companions and – once all pages have been filled with writing – are never disposed of. Most of our customers save their notebooks, planners and sketchbooks, because they contain precious memories, ideas and personal history that are treasured most. It doesn't get more sustainable than that.

Denken mit der Hand*

Think with the hand

 Writing by hand is thinking on paper. Thoughts grow into words, sentences and pictures.
Memories become stories.
Ideas are transformed into projects. Notes inspire insight.
We write and understand,
learn, see and
think - with the hand.*
